Porkies down Unimas in Kuching Open

KUCHING: Porkies survived a second sets scare before overcoming Unimas 2-0 in their Men's Group B competition of the Kuching Open Volleyball Championship at SESCo Indoor Stadium on Thursday night.

The runners-up in last year's competition won the first set 25-23 while in the second set, they managed to stave off the spirited challenge of Unimas to win 25-23.

In Men's Group A, defending champions Dream Team B who easily disposed of UiTM in straight sets 25-11, 25-12 for their first victory in the competition.

In the women's contest, Fifty-Six also won their opener when they defeated CVS 25-11, 25-23 in Group X.

On the first day of competition, CHMS No. 1 Seniors bowed 13-25, 25-19 and 15-17 to PIVC in Group A while CHMS No.1 Juniors also lost their first game 5-25, 5-25 to Unimas.

This year's Kuching Open which is organised by Kuching Division Volleyball Association, attracted a total of 14 teams including six women's teams.

The finals will be played on Sunday.
