

on 04 March 2014

UNIMAS, the 7th Malaysian university in Asia's top 200

Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS) listed as the seventh Malaysian university to make Asia's top 200, according to 2013 QS University Rankings: Asia. The ranking is based on nine performance indicator i.e. academic reputation, employer reputation, faculty student, citations per paper, international faculty, international students, papers per faculty, inbound exchange, outbound exchange. It gives an essential overview of higher education in developing regions.

More information at <http://www.topuniversities.com/where-to-study/asia/malaysia/top-universities-malaysia>

Written by: Flora Bungan Balang