

Seeing the real world
in poetry

15th MELTA Conference 2006

Colin Jerome
Centre for Language Studies
Center for Language Studies
Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas)

R01: Definition of 'real world' - Focus group interview

Q1: what do you mean by 'real world'?

6 categories: Perceptions, Reality, Concepts, Problems, Experience & Time

Perceptions/ Perceptual	Reality	Concepts	Problems	Experience	Time
See with our own eyes Interpretation Subjective Qualitative in words Current Interest of life around life	What we face now Focus on it Qualitative Qualitative in words Current Interest of life around life everyday day-to-day recognition	Things Reality vs. subjective vs. objective Things A check to you The world is changed	Personal problems what we face Social problems	Experience checking experience	Past, present, future

Collin Jerome, Connie Chin

Jerome, C., & Chin, C. S. L. (2006, June). Seeing the real world in poetry. Paper presented at the 15th Malaysian English Language Teaching Association (MELTA) conference on 'Reading and Writing: Preparing ESL Learners for the Real World', Kuching, Malaysia.