

Surat khabar: The Sunday Post (Home)

Hari/Tarikh: 13/3/2016

Muka surat: 10

Tajuk : Fatimah: Collaborate to organize more welfare programmes

Fatimah (centre) officiating at Masnita Fiesta accompanied by Masnita members.

Fatimah: Collaborate to organise more welfare programmes

By

Daryll Law
reporters@theborneopost.com

KOTA SAMARAHAN: Greater collaboration should be forged between the Ministry of Welfare, Women and Family Development and Unimas' Women's Association (Masnita) to organise more welfare programmes in future.

Its minister Datuk Fatimah Abdullah said this was so the disadvantaged and needy would be given attention. She urged more women to be involved with welfare and community programmes.

"There are many ways we can collaborate – we are more than happy to work with you

There are many ways we can collaborate – we are more than happy to work with you to benefit women, families, the disadvantaged and needy in society.

— Datuk Fatimah Abdullah, Welfare, Women and Family Development minister to benefit women, families, the disadvantaged and needy in society," she said when officiating at the Masnita Fiesta 2016 held at DeTAR PUTRA, Unimas here yesterday.

Fatimah said programmes that focus on women's empowerment could be organised to advocate women's rights, her ministry to provide expertise for this course.

She hoped such collaboration would be possible in future to benefit the community at large.

Fatimah urged community leaders, non-governmental organisations (NGOs) and volunteers to channel information to her staff on the disadvantaged and needy.

Present were Unimas vice-chancellor Prof Dato Dr Mohamad Kadim Suaidi and Masnita chairman Datin Kartini Ahmad.