Club launched to cultivate voluntary spirit

KUCHING: The state Road Transport Department (JPJ) will launch a 'Kelab Skwad Muda 1JPJ' at 'Panggung Gemilang' in Unimas on May 25.

JPJ director-general Datuk Seri Ismail Ahmad is expected to officiate at the ceremony.

This is the third club of its kind in the country and the first in Sarawak to cultivate the voluntary spirit among students in public institutions of higher learning (IPTA). The top management of related agencies have been invited to attend the ceremony as are members of public.

Activities lined up include an exhibition, 1JPJ counter service for licence renewal, summons payment, blacklist checking, free motorcycle inspection and compound discount up to 50 per cent and more. Unimas acoustic band will be performing and members of public are welcome to play games and quiz.
