JPJ to launch young squad at Unimas

KUCHING: The state Road Transport Department (JPJ) will launch its 'Kelab Skvad Muda 1JPJ' (1JPJ Young Squad Club) at Universiti Malaysia Sarawak's (Unimas) Panggung Gemilang this Wednesday at 2pm.

State JPJ director Ibrahim Othman said this club is the first to be established in Sarawak and the third in Malaysia.

"The objective of this club is to inculcate the spirit of volunteerism among higher-learning students and at the same time to be the catalyst for 1JPJ youth squad when they graduate," he said in a statement yesterday.

JPJ director general Dato' Sri Ismail Ahmad is expected to launch the event.

Ibrahim said the public is welcome to join in the ceremony where various other activities will also be held such as inter-agency exhibition, acoustic band competition by Unimas students, and quiz game for visitors.

Meanwhile, a 1JPJ service counter will also be set up for the public to settle their summons, renew driving licences and road tax and get 50 per cent reduction of traffic offence compound rates.
