Bakti donates RM50,000 student grant to Unimas

KUALA LUMPUR: The Welfare Association of Wives of Ministers and Deputy Ministers (Bakti) yesterday presented a RM50,000 student grant to Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas).

Bakti president Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, who is the wife of the prime minister, handed a cheque for the amount to Unimas vice-chancellor Prof Datuk Dr Mohamad Kadim Suaidi.

The grant is to help students from needy families get a good education and secure excellent results.

Mohamad Kadim said money from the grant would be distributed to needy students from the interior and rural areas.

“We at Unimas are most grateful to Bakti for having selected us for the grant.

“We will use the donation to help students according to their need,” he told reporters after the presentation at Bangunan Bakti Siti Hasmah here.

The Bakti grant is the second given to Unimas.

The university received a similar grant of RM50,000 in 2000.

Since 2006, Bakti has provided such grants to several other universities, among them Universiti Teknologi Petronas (RM20,000), International Islamic University of Malaysia (RM20,000), Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (RM20,000), Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (RM10,000) and Universiti Malaya (RM20,000).
