Malaysia Airports managing director visits Unimas on sharing mission

KUCHING: Malaysia Airports Holdings Berhad (MAHB) managing director Datuk Badlisham Ghazali yesterday visited University Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) after being appointed industry exemplary icon under the Faculty's Programme CEO.

The programme held early this year was officiated by Deputy Prime Minister Dato Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi.

It connects the industry icon to the higher education institution, according to a press release yesterday.

It aims to upgrade the country's higher education through sharing of expertise and experience, besides inspiring university students to pursue excellence and success.

Badlisham mingled with some 80 educators and staff of Unimas during a leadership talk.

He met the students with whom he shared his experiences in a talk on 'Experience and Challenges as CEO'.

The event held at Tunku Abdul Rahman Putra Hall was attended by some 3,500 students of the university.

The visit to Unimas also saw the launch of an open shed contributed by Malaysia Airports under its Malaysia Airports Support Community Programme.

The open shed named 'Teratak Ceria Malaysia Airports' was constructed in front of the DeTAR Mini Forest tracks for the convenience of students carrying out studies on the species of flora in the forest area.

Badlisham joined employees of LT International Kuching to celebrate Malaysia Airports' 24th anniversary with a 3-hour dialogue session during which he shared about the direction the company was heading.

Awards were presented to 11 employee for outstanding service with Malaysia Airports.

Under its CSR programme, he presented a RM10,000 grant to Surau Nur Bakti Dakwah in Kuching to repair the roof of its prayer hall.
