

Surat khabar: The Borneo Post (Home)

Hari/Tarikh: 12/9/2013

Muka surat: 12

Tajuk : Unimas Postgraduate Colloquium And Language Carnival In November.

Unimas Postgraduate Colloquium and Language Carnival in November

KOTA SAMARAHAN:
Universiti Malaysia
Sarawak (Unimas) Centre
for Language Studies (CLS)
will be organising its second
'Postgraduate Colloquium and
Language Carnival' from Nov
24-25.

This year's edition will highlight the theme 'Colours of Languages' signifying the diverse languages and their uniqueness, a press statement said.

The event is designed to showcase the language courses offered at CLS, which includes Mandarin, French, Japanese, Arabic, Malay, and English.

Every course will have its own booth and among the planned activities are performances by international students, 'khat' and a variety of language games at individual booths.

Postgraduate students of CLS as well as those from Universitas Tanjungpura, Indonesia will take part in the postgraduate colloquium.

They will be presenting research papers in the areas of language studies.

There will also be prizes to be won for both the colloquium presenters and carnival participants.

The event is open to the public, school students and teachers, and other institutions of higher learning.

Admission is free.

Details can be obtained from www.cls.unimas.my