

Surat khabar: New Sarawak Tribune (TribunePrime)

Hari/Tarikh: 18/1/2017

Muka surat: 1

Tajuk : 7-ft croc seen crossing Unimas students' apartment grounds

7-ft croc seen crossing Unimas students' apartment grounds

KOTA SAMARAHAN: A seven-foot crocodile was seen crossing the road at the Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS) students' apartment grounds at Taman Desa Ilmu, here, last night.

The crocodile's appearance shocked the Rafflesia Apartment residents who then reported the sighting to the Sarawak Fire and Rescue Department.

Its assistant director of operations, Farhan Sufyan Borhan said they received the report at 10.26pm before seven firemen from the Kota Samarahan station rushed to the location.

"However, when the firemen arrived at the location, the crocodile had disappeared, believed to have gone back into the drain near the apartment," he said, here, yesterday.

Farhan Sufyan said the department had informed Sarawak Forestry Corporation about the incident for further action. - Bernama