

Unimas holds 'Art, Culture and Heritage Week'

TBP Fri 31 Aug 07 P10

KUCHING: Students of the Arts Management Programme at Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) in cooperation with the Student Development Centre and Unimas Recreation Club will be holding their 'Art, Culture and Heritage Week' from Sept 5 to 7.

Themed 'Apresiasi Seni Inspirasi Budaya', the event will take place at the Faculty of Applied and Creative Arts.

Hundreds of staff, students and artists are expected to attend the annual event with many exciting activities lined up for the three days such as a photo exhibition, fashion show, handicraft demonstrations, D'Zurainas Beauty Cosmetic demonstrations, Kek Lapis Rabiah Amit demonstrations and Dikir Barat performance.

The organisers hope that this event will contribute to the appreciation of Malaysian culture, arts and heritage besides serving as a platform for Arts Management student to apply the skills learnt.

For enquiries, call the head of Department of Liberal Arts Qistina Donna Lee Abdullah at 082-581321 or email Idjuleng@faca.unimas.my.
