

UNIMAS STUDENTS SHOW CONCERN FOR ELDERLY CITIZENS

August 25, 2016, Thursday

Borneo Post

KUCHING: A group of students from University Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) brought cheer to 66 residents of Seri Kenangan Home yesterday.

The Community Day Programme held in conjunction with Unimas Liaison Officer Induction Course (Kilo) saw 280 students engage with residents through activities such as ice-breaking and sharing session.

“The effort shown by the Unimas students is very good and I hope more such effort will be carried out in future,” Kota Samarahan MP Rubiah Wang said.

Also present were Unimas Deputy Registrar Student Service Centre Nasriman Abdul Rahman, Seri Kenangan, Kuching vice-principal Nurul Aimidiana Oton and Social Welfare Department, Kuching representative Dusim Oh Siong.

The Community Day Programme was initiated by Kilo to facilitate the new intake of students for September 2016/2017.

Apart from Seri Kenangan Home, Kuching the students also visited Tadika Bina Hikmah, Samarahan Rehabilitation Centre, Samarahan Community Rehabilitation Centre, SK Pendidikan Khas Kota Samarahan, Welfare of Intellectually Disabled Children (Perkata), Sarawak Society for Parents of Children with Special Needs (Pibakat 2) and Dyslexia Association Sarawak.