

Tajuk : Kuching gets rights to host IAC2020

DR Dione Mifsud (left), and Dato' Dr Abd Halim Mohd Hussin handing over of the rights to organise the IAC2020 while witnessed by Deputy State Secretary Datu -Dr Sabariah Putit (centre).

Kuching gets rights to host IAC2020

BY HARUN JAU

KUCHING: An international counselling conference with the theme "Excellent Counselling in Caring Society and Caring Culture" will be held in Kuching in 2020.

Executive council of the International Association of Counselling has officially approved Kuching as the host of the international counselling conference to be held in Malaysia for the very first time.

The organising rights to host the IAC2020 conference was given by IAC to Persatuan Kaunseling Malaysia Antarabangsa (PERKAMA International) and the Sarawak State Government this year.

State Secretary Tan Sri Datuk Amar Haji Mohamad Morshidi bin Abdul Ghani has given his support for the conference to be held in Sarawak.

Special announcement on the right to organise the International Counseling Conference by PERKAMA International and IAC was made by Dr Amalia Madihie, executive member of PERKAMA International and also the executive council (Asia Regional) yesterday in conjunction with the International Seminar on Professional Counselling 2016 (International ProCoun'16) held at Hilton Hotel here yesterday.

The symbolic handing over of the rights to organise the IAC2020 was made by Dr Dione Mifsud, President of International Association for Counselling (IAC) and Dato' Dr Abd Halim Mohd Hussin, president of PERKAMA International, and was witnessed by Deputy State Secretary Datu Dr Sabariah Putit and the International ProCoun'16 delegates.

In conjunction with the announcement yesterday, another announcement was also made on the publication of an inspiring book written by Surethiran Pillai, an executive member of PERKAMA International.

The book entitled 100 Things To Think About For A Better Life was dedicated to Dato' Dr Abd Halim Mohd Hussain.