Unimas mini film festival explores cinematic changes

KUCHING: The Annual Open Varsity Short Film Competition and Award Night is back, with this year's 'mini Oscars' scheduled to be held at the Faculty of Applied and Creative Arts (Faca) Experimental Theatre at Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) on May 25, from 7.30pm onwards.

In this year's installment, the theme has been set in a Steampunk-inspired element, complete with the slogan 'An Innovation of Cinema', in conjunction with the innovation and changes of cinema and film-making scene in Malaysia.

This event is organised by the third year and final year students of the cinematography programme, with the stage and set design being conceptualised and built from scratch by the second-year students. The first year students will assist the ground handling of the event.

In addition to the competition and awards there are also related events that are open to the public.
