Tajuk: Pandaruan Bridge Nearing Completion.

KUCHING: The Sungai Pandaruan Bridge, linking Limbang in Malaysia and Temburung District in Brunei is now almost fully constructed.

This was disclosed by Works Minister Datuk Fadillah Yusof yesterday.

"The Pandaruan Bridge is now nearing completion," he told reporters at Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS), Kuching, yesterday. The minister had earlier launched the Student Volunteers Foundation, Sarawak Taition Mission at UNIMAS Dewan Kuliah CTF1.

"A visit to Brunei will soon be made to discuss the launch of the bridge and its naming. A discussion on roads to be planned for both Sarawak and Brunei will also be held," said Fadillah.

Meanwhile, when asked on a teaching hospital for UNIMAS, which has none at the moment, he said the federal cabinet was aware of the matter. "It is still at the consideration stage. The decision to have one will depend on the financial position of the government," he informed.
