

UNIMAS holds Islamic concert

BY INJA MARGARET

KOTA SAMARAHAN: UNIMAS successfully held an Islamic concert themed 'Islamic Art Night' on Friday evening at its DeTAR Putra Hall.

Held in conjunction with the university's Islam Appreciation Week, the charity concert was aimed at portraying the beauty of Islamic arts as well as to apply entertainment features acceptable in Islam.

Apart from that, the concert was meant to show non-Muslims that Islamic concerts are not only based on 'Nasyid' but have their own contemporary arts and prestige.

There were performances by Islamic artists such as Muadz Dzulkefly and Fitri Haris UNIC, Qasidah, flashmob orchestra and a sketch.

The concert was attended by Professor Madya Dr Siti Raudzah Ghazali, Deputy Dean of Student Development Centre, Unimas.

INVITED artiste, Mu'adz Dzulkefly belts out an Islamic song for the audience.

MADRASAH Al-Khairat group performs the Qasidah. PHOTOS: MARVIN KUDANG

THE crowd attending the 'Islamic Art Night Concert' inside the UNIMAS DeTAR Putra Hall.