<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Code</th>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Hrs</th>
<th>Resource Persons</th>
<th>Date &amp; Time</th>
<th>Venue</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>JSM6042</td>
<td>Applied Environmental and Resource Economics (2 Credits) Coordinator: Dr Haslina Hashim</td>
<td></td>
<td>Dr Haslina Hashim</td>
<td>Saturday &amp; Sunday 0900-1700</td>
<td>TR3, FSSH</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Course Overview
- Basic concepts in development economics
- State, market and society
- Development theories (Part 1)
- Patterns of growth and environmental pressure I
- Natural Resource Accounting
- Renewable resource management
- Forest management and timber rents I
- Forest management and timber rent II
- Poverty, environment and development
- Basic concepts in environmental economics
- Institutions, risk, and environment
- Agricultural economics
- Patterns of growth and environmental pressure II
- Water pollution and regulatory instruments
- Air pollution and valuation