

on 09 October 2012

Be proud of your scrolls, UNIMAS graduates told

SAMARAHAN: Graduates of Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS) should be proud of their scrolls.

UNIMAS' Student Affairs Deputy Vice-chancellor, Prof Mohd Fadzil Abdul Rahman stated this at the ZECON Excellent Award ceremony, held at UNIMAS here on Wednesday.

He advised the graduates to work hard and to be committed in order to excel in their careers.

He said academic excellence did not necessarily mean success in careers.

"What's important for the community and employers is work performance. This measures our success in career "Always bear in mind that hard work and commitment will lead to career excellence," he added.

Source : Sarawak Tribune