UNIMAS, Warwick Sign MoU On Student Exchange Programme

KUCHING, Feb 18 (Bernama) -- Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS) signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Warwick University of United Kingdom to collaborate towards establishing a student exchange programme between the two universities.

UNIMAS vice-chancellor Prof Datuk Dr Khairuddin Ab Hamid and Warwick's Adjunct Associate Professor of Surgery, Prof Dr Peter Abrahams signed the MoU Monday.

The signing was witnessed by Deputy Minister of Information, Communications and Culture Datuk Joseph Salang Gandum and National University Singapore Hospital's professor of clinical anatomy, Prof Dr Goh Hak Su.

Under the MOU, selected students from UNIMAS and Warwick will participate in the exchange programme, which will be between four and six weeks.

A special fund will also be established jointly by Prof Abraham and Prof Goh to provide scholarships to the selected students.

For a start, the programme will only involve medical students from both universities and will be extended to other fields of study in the future.
