Dr M invited to speak at convention

KUCHING: Former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad has been invited to speak at a convention organised by Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) student representative council on Feb 25 and 26.

Other speakers at the National Politics and Patriotism Convention: The Real Way Forward include national historian Prof Emeritus Tan Sri Dr Khoo Kay Kim and Universiti Teknologi Mara law lecturer Prof Madya Datuk Abdul Halim Sidek.

The convention aims to promote love for the country through education and provide a correct perspective on the current state of politics in the country and its link to patriotism. It is open to all institutes of higher learning, government agencies, non-governmental organisations and the private sector .

For more information, call the council at 082-581 815 or fax 082-581 816 or email xerus.arm90@gmail.com.
