KUCHING: Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) is having its 10th Convocation Fest 2006 at the Chancellery Square, West Campus until this Sunday.

The highlight is the official launching ceremony today by the Head of State, Tun Datuk Patinggi Abang Muhammad Salahuddin who is also the university's Chancellor.

Many activities have been lined up for the four-day fest.

These include exhibitions by the various academic faculties and centres as well as private companies being held on the first floor of the Centre for Academic Information Services.

Besides, sports, cultural and arts events are being held.
